

KLL All-Star Procedures Baseball & Softball

1. Sign ups will be open from the second Saturday in May and end the last day of the regular season.
2. Voting will be conducted by the player agent and the VP's of each division.
3. All-Star teams will be announced on closing day or when approved by Little League International to be released.
4. If a player is selected and decides not to play he / she forfeits their chance to play the next year.

Minor All-Star Voting Procedures 9/10A, 9/10B

Voting will be done with Managers and Coaches from each division. The Manager and one Coach from each team will vote. All votes count equal. Managers and Coaches may vote for their own players 16 must be voted on each ballot. The top 8 players will make the 9/10A team. The 9/10A team manager will then select the remaining players on that team. The 9/10B team will be filled by the remaining players that were voted into the top 16 and Manager picks. The 9/10B team will be selected after the 9/10A team finishes their All Star roster. The Managers and Coaches along with the President, VP, Player Agent and the Minor VP will then meet to complete the teams for approval.

Major Division 11/12, 11 Year Old Teams

All voting will be done by the managers and one coach. All votes count equal. Managers and coaches may vote for their own players. The top 8 players (11 and 12) voted on in the age group are assigned to 11/12 year old All-Star Team. Managers of each All-Star team will pick the remainder of the team and Coaches pending review by a committee comprised of the League President, the VP and Player Agent. The number of 11 year olds pulled up to the 11/12 team may be limited based on the number of 11 year olds who sign up. The top 8 players (11 years old) voted on after the 11 and 12 year old team is selected, will be assigned to the 11 year old all star team. Ten year olds will not be permitted to play up to 10/11 team. The manager and coach along with the President, VP, Major Division VP and Player Agent will complete the teams with the remaining players.

The manager and coach along with the President, VP, Junior Division VP and Player Agent will complete the team with the remaining players.

All- Star Manager Selection

- A. Order of selection (Minor and Major Baseball only)
- I. Managers will be selected by the board.
 - II. In the event a Manager declines, is not approved by the board, or withdraws after their acceptance (depending on timing: see below)
 - III. Managers may NOT voluntarily trade entire teams or players after formally selecting a team. If there are mitigating circumstances to justify such a move, then the final determination will be made by the board of directors.
 - IV. A Manager All- Star Application Form will be used for written request of a specific team. This would be done prior to the actual selection of the players of each team.
 - V. Division VP's will turn in all All-Star applications for managers before the designated date.
 - VI. All Managers and coaches are eligible to submit an All-Star application.
- B
- I. Manager must give written notice to the board of Directors for any reason for withdrawing once he/she formally applies.
 - II. An event of withdrawal may have consequences depending on the reason and will be up to the board to decide if any.
 - III. Those who sign up All-Star, but decline to participate will forfeit their eligibility for All-Star managing and coaching through their next playing season or one year. Extenuating circumstances resulting in the forfeiture of All-Star coaching privileges may be brought before the board of directors for consideration at the next scheduled board meeting immediately following the forfeiture.
 - IV. Primary coach of record (the one named first on the acceptance form and affidavit) will be named the new Manager in the event of a Manager withdrawal if it occurs after submittal of the affidavit to the District Administrator. If done prior to the submission of the affidavit to the DA, then the selection would go to the next team Manager chosen by the Board of Directors.
